

Western Lakeland Walks

A series of walks, many with gentle hills and nearby coastal paths, are presented in this guide to a relatively unexplored area of the Lake District.

The western shore walk is approximately four miles long, beginning at Wray shore, Loweswater in the far north-western Lake District is the place to find it. Guided walk, routes and maps to download, accessible routes for pushchairs walking, and what different rights of way mean for walkers in the Lake District. A classic route from Wasdale to the Scafell mountains via Brown Tongue and Lords Rake. An super walk from Seathwaite via Sourmilk Gill and Windy Gap. Bounce along the long felltop of the North Central Fells to High Seat, Bleaberry Fell and more. A walk in the far western of Lakeland to three Wainwright fells. Walking routes, guides and maps for Cumbria. The Cistercian Way long distance trail passes just to the west of the common. You can pick it up to extend your A circular walk from the market town of Kirkby Stephen in Cumbria. The route explores the rolling country to the south-west of the town visiting the village of Our pick of the nine best walking routes in the Lake District. Looking north-west beyond Middle Dodd, Hartsop above How and St Sunday Ideas for walks from low-level lakeside ambles to felltop hikes. Windermere Western Shore - 9 km, 5.5 miles 7. Red Nab to Wray Castle - 5 km, 3.1 miles 8. The other Lake District: a guide to the quiet and beautiful western Lakes For an enchanting low-level walk (of about two miles), park by Guidebook to 50 challenging walks in the Lake District. Includes Fairfield, Scafell Pike and Blencathra, to the lesser-known High Spy and Brund Fell. WalkLakes has the best Lake District walks. Hundreds of detailed free walks with proper maps, photos, and GPS waypoints along with hotels, cottages, and Easy Lake District walks. Beda Fell from Martindale, 6km. A Short Walk From Ashness Bridge to High Seat, 6km. Birk Crag, Harrop Tarn and Blea Tarn, 6km. 48 easy and accessible walking routes for wheelchairs and pushchairs across the Lake District National Park. Lakeland Fellranger walking guidebook covering 34 summits in the Western Fells of the Lake District, with a range of ascents. This area sits within the triangle of This figure of eight walk uses a section of the long distance Cumbria Way and other public footpaths to explore the area to the east and west of the village. Lake District Walk Finder. Our aim at WalkLakes is to help you make the most of walking in the Lake District. We do that by searching out the best walks we can A host of articles and guide books, including those of the famous Lakeland fell walker Wainwright have made the many classic walks beside English Lakes and Lake District selected free walks ideas with precise map for walkers, complete description A pleasant hike, to the west of Ambleside, across hills overlooking Walks in The Lake District. Select the criteria for your walk to find all matching walks. Length of walk: Any The Calf from Bowderdale via West Fell The Calf